

Stommel Symposium Program

September 27, 2021

Redfield Auditorium, Woods Hole, MA

8:30am	Welcome Peter de Menocal, President and Director, Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution
8:45am	Outline of program and a memory Joe Pedlosky, Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution
9:00am	"Henry Stommel: Inspired Contradictions" Carl Wunsch, Massachusetts Institute of Technology
9:30am	"Experiences of a Graduate Student Guided by Henry Stommel" David Halpern, Jet Propulsion Laboratory
10:00am	"Henry Stommel - a student's-eye view of an extraordinary adviser, mentor and example" Robert Knox, Emeritus Research Oceanographer, Scripps Institution of Oceanography, UCSD
10:30am	Coffee
11:00am	"My Hank memories back in the Seventies" Michele Fieux, Sorbonne Université, Paris
11:30am	"How Hank got me started in Oceanography" Thomas Rossby, University of Rhode Island
12:00 noon	Lunch
1:00pm	"My Neighbor Hank" Doug Webb, Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution
1:30pm	"A dream come true" Valery Detemmerman, World Climate Research Programme
2:30pm	"Learning from Henry Stommel's Approach to Tackling Scientific Problems" Leif Thomas, Stanford University

---

3:00pm Coffee/Tea Break

---

3:30pm "Fond Memories of our Beloved Husband and Father, Henry Stommel"
Elijah Stommel, Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center

---

4:00pm "Interacting with Henry Stommel"
Harry Bryden, University of Southampton, Ocean and Earth Science, National Oceanography Centre
Southampton

---

4:30pm "Henry Stommel and the global ocean circulation"
Lynne Talley, University of California, San Diego

---

6:00pm Dinner Reception (Redfield Lab, outside under a heated tent)