

H. Burr Steinbach

October 7, 1905 – December 21, 1981

University of Michigan, B.A., 1928
Brown University, M.S. 1930
University of Pennsylvania, Ph.D., 1935

National Research Council Fellow,
University of Chicago and University of Rochester, 1933 –1935

Instructor – Assistant Professor,
University of Minnesota, 1935 –1938

Assistant Professor,
Columbia University, 1938 – 1942

Associate Professor – Professor,
Washington University, 1942 –1947

Professor,
University of Minnesota, 1947 – 1957

Assistant Director,
National Science Foundation, 1953 – 1954

Honorary Research Associate – Biophysics,
University College, London, 1955 – 1956

Guggenheim Fellow, 1955 – 1956

Professor and Chairman – Department of Zoology
University of Chicago, 1957 – 1968

Professor of Zoology,
University of Chicago, 1968 – 1971
Emeritus Professor

Director and President,
Marine Biological Laboratory, 1966 – 1968

Dean of Graduate Studies,
Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution, 1968 – 1973
Dean Emeritus

Scientific Director,

Harbor Branch Laboratory, 1973 – Exp.

President,

The Oceanic Institute, 1974 – 1977

President Emeritus

Special Consultant in Marine Policy,

Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution, 1978 – 1981